

Center for Law and Intellectual Property

CLIP INNOVATION SUMMIT:

Shaping the Future of Law & Entrepreneurship

Friday, February 28, 2014
Texas A&M University School of Law

CLIP Innovation Summit: Shaping the Future of Law & Entrepreneurship

February 28, 2014, 8:00 a.m., Texas A&M School of Law, Fort Worth

Universities nurture the development of ideas. Entrepreneurship nurtures that uniquely American drive to make things better and make better things. The CLIP Innovation Summit focuses on the intersection of the two, and examines the university as a platform for innovation and entrepreneurship.

Topics include:

- Encouraging entrepreneurship from idea to launch
- Universities as rocket fuel for entrepreneurs
- Programs for early stage concepts and innovations
- Law firm models to support entrepreneurship
- Incubator programs for entrepreneurs at all stages
- Working remotely with entrepreneurs and lawyers

Panel sessions:

- The Next Generation of Innovation
- Challenges to Supporting Entrepreneurship
- Education Evolution
- Expert Collaboration
- Incubators as Innovators

7.5 hours CLE credit available.

Registration Options:

- Non-CLE Registration $50
- CLE Registration $80 - includes 7.5 hours of CLE credit

For more information or to register, please visit www.law.tamu.edu/clip

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW

STARTUP AGGIELAND
TEXAS A & M UNIVERSITY

Texas A&M University School of Law
1515 Commerce Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102